EXCITING CONTESTS.

The annual meeting of the Provincial Firemen's Association for Alberta, which was held in Red Deer Monday and Tuesday, was well attended, firemen being present from Medicine Hat, Pincher Creek, Lacombe, Calgary, Vegreville, Strathcona and other places.

The Convention was held on Monday in the Fire Hall, when business of importance to firemen throughout the province was transacted.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

On Tuesday there was a good crowd at the exhibition grounds to witness the contests of skill for the different trophies.

In the morning two contests were held, one the rescue of a dummy from a building, the other a hose and ladder contest, wherein the contestants lay 350 feet of hose and carry hose to roof of building.

The championship hose-reel race was carried off by Medicine Hat, This race was to pull the hose reel with 350 feet of hose 300 feet to a hydrant, attach and lay 300 feet of hose, uncouple and screw on pipe three turns. Lacombe made fastest time in this but were disputed on account of having a coacher alongside. Pincher Creek came second.

PIPE ORGAN OPENING.

At the morning service the organ will be presented to the Church by H. H. Gaetz on behalf of the donors. As is well known the organ has been erected in loving memory of the late Mrs. Dr. Gaetz by her sons and daughters.

The organist, E. Welton, will preside at the organ and will play a number of selections at both services. The Pastor, Mr. Huestis, will speak at the morning service upon "The power of Christian Song" and in the evening upon "The Triumphs of Christian Song." Penhold Rifle Association

The following are the details of the second League shoot:

	200yds.	500	600	Total
W. Whiteside	28	32	25	85
J. Farrar	20	24	24	77
T. Reeves	28	25	26	79
W. Kennings	24	29	24	77
F. Domoney	27	28	19	74

H. Henderfon	23	32	16	71
T. Kenning	21	22	23	66
J. E. Carswell	25	18	22	65

The Penhold Rifle Association have found in some of the new junior members marksmen of no mean ability. Tom Kennings, Jr., has found his way into the team for the League for the past two shoots, and if this young member keeps on as he has started he will make some of the old time cracks look to their laurels. Willie Whiteside another new member, being the 11th man only just missed his place. We hope to see Willie one of the ten next shoot. The following are the totals in the third League shoot: W. Whiteside 89, A. Henderson 85, F. Domoney 85, E. Reeves 78, A. Hives 75, J. Reeves 71, T. Kennings 71, T. Hives 69, J. Farrar 67, R. Domoney, 65.

St. Luke's S. S. Picnic

St. Luke's Sunday School annual picnic was held last Tuesday, July 5th, at the farm of Mr. and Mrs. E. Plumb, near Blackfalds. Rigs and wagons were provided and a start was made at 10.30 a.m. from the church. On arrival at the farm the younger ones immediately scattered round through the woods and the older people stated to prepare lunch. Abundant provision had been made and lunch was taken in real picnic fashion under the shade of a beautiful grove of spruce and poplar. After lunch all kinds of games were indulged in by folks of all ages. There was a most exciting game of football, also cricket, skipping and swings for the litle tots, and for those of a quieter nature there was plenty of opportunity for rambling in the woods and by the Blindman river, which runs at the foot of the hill, close to the house.

Later in the day a good programme of sports was carried through, including races of all kinds for old and young.

The day closed with hearty cheers for Mr. and Mrs. Plumb, Mr. Amos Plumb and all those who had so kindly assisted to make the day one of enjoyment and success.

One Hundred Per Cent

Mr. Marker, the dairy commissioner for Alberta, in writing the secretary of the Red Deer Creamery June 30th, congratulates the patrons and the buttermaker on 100 per cent. first grade for the week previous, and the practical argument is shown in the rate of advance, which is 38 cents per hundred pounds higher than the approximate average selling price of all the creameries.

The memorandum of grading mentioned is:

	1st grade	2nd grade
Average %
All creameries	81.17	18.83
Highest	100.00	—
Lowest	29.00	71.00
Red Deer	100.00	—

This is someting for Red Deer Creamery to be proud of. The large majority of the patrons are sending in an excellent article, but there are a few who could improve the quality of their cream.

Eckville.

We expect great doings on the 15th at the U.F.A. basket picnic. A good program of sports is advertised, to conclude with a football match between Eckville and Beaver Flats. It is also expected that Leslieville will bring a ball team down to play Evarts. In the evening a dance will be held at the school house; good music. Come and make it a success. Mr. Krause will be prepared to supply visitors with supper at the hotel.

A SPECIMEN DEPORTATION.

The case of August Ellasson, 86 Florence street, Hamilton, is one that deserves some attention. Ellasson is an immigrant, a bricklayer by trade, a sober and industrious man and a competent workman. When he arrived in this country he told the immigration officials what his trade was, and he was sent to a man up country who, he was told, would give him employment. Arriving he found that this man was a brickmaker. As Ellasson knew nothing about making bricks, he came to Hamilton, soon got work at his trade, established his wife and family in a home on Florence street, and the prospects looked bright for that household. But yesterday a Dominion immigration official arrived in the city and last night, with the aid of a local detective, he arrested Ellasson on a charge of having come to this country on the pretence that he was a farm laborer. The officer hustled his prisoner away, and they are now on their way back to Halifax, whence poor Ellasson will be deported to Sweden, his native country.

It is possible that Ellasson was classed as an agricultural laborer; but it is possible, and even probable, that he was not so classed with his knowledge and consent. As a matter of fact, many immigrants are sent out to Canada as agricultural laborers without knowing that they have been so classed. The reason is that the European immigration agents are paid a bounty for agricultural laborers and domestics whom they send out and do not get anything for other classes of immigrants.

It is not improbable that poor Ellasson has been seized at his new home, hustled away from his family, and may be sent back across the ocean, through no fault of his own, but merely because some immigration agent wanted to make a few dollars by representing him as an agricultural laborer.—Hamilton Spectator.

A Suggestion or Two.

To the Editor of The News,

Dear Sir:—With your kind permission, and in the briefest possible space, may I be allowed to make a suggestion or two that seem to be in the interests of our community. Probably every citizen in the town of Red Deer is agreed that the interests of the people who live in the town and those who live in the surrounding country are one and the same. My first suggestion came to me through seeing the large number of farmer's horses that are tied in the different yards and sheds. Surely a plain substantial drinking fountain would be a great boon to these horses and a great convenience to their owners after their long trips to town. It has just occurred to me that the committee in charge of the First of July celebration may have some money that they do not know how to spend and that this would be a good investment. If they have no money I would suggest that the young ladies of the town take up the matter and I am confident that the people, both in the town and in the country, will support them. The most progressive towns in the east have the convenience, and they have found it one of their most satisfactory investments. The other suggestion belongs wholly to the sphere of the human and is to the effect that our places of business ought to be closed on the afternoon of one day in the week during the months of July and August. Probably the business men think that the public will not allow them this recreation. I am confident that the public, both in the town and the country, will be glad to allow it if they are given the opportunity to express their mind. May I suggest that the clerks get together and circulate a petition at once to the mind of the public on this matter.

Both these suggestions require the co-operation of the town and country and it is because of the good feeling between the two that I believe that both suggestions are practical.

Thanking you for so much of your valuable space,

I remain
Yours respectfully,
W. G. BROWN.

The Red Deer Crops Better Than Ever.

Mr. James Bowers, President of the U.F.A., Tells of Conditions in That Part of Province.

(Calgary Herald.)

James Bower, president of the U.F.A., arrived in the city yesterday to take in the remaining days of the fair. When asked in regard to the crops in the Red Deer district, Mr. Bower said: "I never saw the crops so good in the Red Deer district as they are this year. We have had an abundance of moisture and the whole country looks green and fresh. Around Red Deer the country looks delightful, and if nothing happens to blight the growing crops we should have a splendid return. The only shortage appears to be in timothy hay, which will not be a full crop. Similar conditions, I believe, prevail in the surrounding districts."

Mr. Julian Sharman, who owns a large Jersey dairy ranch east of Red Deer, said to the Albertan yesterday that in the past six years he has never seen the crops in his vicinity look better. Stock also are doing well, and the splendid green herbage is providing excellent fodder for the dairy stock.

It Costs $40.00 For Doctor's Visit

On Alberta's Prairies—DR. CHASE'S Medicine and Receipt Book Very Popular Out There.

The luxuries of city life are little known in the prairie homes of Western Canada. When sickness comes people find it necessary to depend on their own resources to a great extent on account of the difficulty and expense of a doctor's visit.

By reading the letter quoted here you will form some idea of how Dr Chase's Medicines and Receipt Book are appreciated in Alberta. This is not only due to the convenience of having these medicines on hand when occasion requires but is also owing to their wonderful reliability.

Where will you find such a restorative treatment as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, to enrich the blood, strengthen the nerves and build up the run down system?

Mr. Geo. Clay, Oxville, Alberta, writes: "I have always been a great admirer of Dr. Chase's Medicines and have had his large Receipt Book for over twenty years. His medicines and book have saved me many doctor bills and have proved wonderfully effective. It costs $40.00 for a doctor to come out here, so it is rather expensive to get sick.

"I recommended Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to a friend of mine for his wife He studied the symptoms in Dr Chase's Almanac and found she needed Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to restore her wornout nervous system. I gave him some of this medicine until he could get to town when he got two boxes more and these cured her entirely.

"For myself, I used Dr. Chase's Catarrh Powder with splendid results. For some time I was bad with catarrh and could not breath through my nose. Now I go to bed and never wake all night and breathe all the time through the nose."

Dr. Chase's Medicines are for sale by all dealers or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

Not Far Wrong

"Say, paw," queried little Sylvester Snodgrass, "what's a test case?"

A Boon for the Bilious.—The liver is a very sensitive organ and easily deranged. When this occurs there is undue secretion of bile and the acrid liquid flows into the stomach and sours it. There is no better medicine in the entire list of pill prescriptions.

SAVED IN HIS OLD AGE

Annapolis, N. S., May 14, 1909.—I am over eighty years of age and have suffered from Kidney and Bladder trouble for fifteen years. I took doctors' medicine but got no help. I went to thank you for sending me the sample box of Gin Pills, which help'd me.

I have taken six boxes of Gin Pills altogether, but got relief before I had taken near that amount. I had to g t up some nights every fifteen minutes and had to use an instrument before I could urinate. Now I can lie in bed four or five hours without getting up.

Attacks of cholera and dyaentery come quickly, there seldom being any warning of the visit. Remedial action must be taken just as quickly if the patient is to be spared great suffering and permanent injury to the lining membranes of the bowels. It can be got at small cost at any drug store or general dealer's, and it will afford relief before a doctor can be called.

Smart Boy

"Well, there were only three boys in school to-day who could answer one question that the teacher asked us," said a proud boy of eight.

"And I hope my boy was one of the three," said the proud mother.

An Always Ready Pill.—To those of regular habit medicine is of little concern, but the great majority of men are not of regular habit. The worry and cares of business prevent it, and out of the irregularity of life comes dyspepsia, indigestion, liver and kidney troubles as a matter of course. PEOPLE'S PULPIT

Workmen Needing Not to be Ashamed.

Sermon by CHARLES T. RUSSELL Pastor Brooklyn Tabernacle.

"Study to Show Thyself Approved Unto God, a Workman That Needeth Not to Be Ashamed, Rightly Dividing the Word of Truth" (II. Timothy ii, 15).

Louisville, Ky., June 19.—Pastor Russell of the Brooklyn Tabernacle, New York, to-day addressed the International Bible Students' Association here, using the above text. He also gave a public address under the auspices of the association. He had crowded houses and earnest attention. On the above text he said in part:

I address you, dear friends, as Christians, students of God's Word, and not as sectarians. Although the world is full of denominations, each claiming to be the Church of Christ, we all admit that there is but the one "Church of the firstborns whose names are written in heaven" (Hebrews xii, 23). This conviction is being borne in upon us more and more as the days go by, and as the eyes of our understanding open more widely to the teachings of God's Word. We realize increasingly that our division means our shame in the eyes of the world, and that our Creedal contradictions imply that we are not all led in all things by the Holy Spirit, the teachings of which cannot be Yea and Nay upon the same subject. It is this sentiment which is taking hold of the ministry of all denominations and making them anxious for an outward show of Unity in Church Federation, which will shortly be effected. The Christian public, however, and especially Bible students, are not deeply sympathetic with the Federation idea. They realize that at most it would be a gloss of deception so far as doctrinal oneness is concerned, and that otherwise it is but a business or worldly combination.

Bible students are more and more coming to prefer the Lord's way—the Scriptural way. They are coming to realize that what God's people need is not more organization but less organization, more explicit creeds but the one standard of fellowship which the Bible sets up. They are learning that this simple creed is—a turning from sin and acceptance of the Lord Jesus as the Redeemer from sin and death and the full consecration to God the believer, mind and body, to know and to do the Lord's will to the best of his ability, under the Lord's Providential guidance. We all see that this simple bond of fellowship is the only one laid down in God's Word, and that whatsoever is more than this is injurious—bondage to men and to systems. We all see that "the Church of the Living God whose names are written in heaven" is composed exclusively of such as conform to the one bond of this simple creed—that these alone will constitute "the Body of Christ which is the Church"—"the Bride, the Lamb's wife," to whom he will accept and unite to himself in the end of this age. We all see that this class alone is referred to in the Scripture as "the elect," who are to be associated with the Saviour in his glorious Spiritual Kingdom, which, invisible to men, is shortly to be established in power and great glory for the blessing of natural Israel and through her for the blessing of all the families of the earth—living and dead.

Let us consider the latter part of our text first: The Apostle's suggestion is that Timothy and all the ministers of the Gospel of Christ are profoundly responsible, largely under the guidance of God's Word. In the larger sense every Christian is a minister of the Gospel, or, as St. Peter declares, a "royal priesthood, a holy people, a Peculiar Treasure." In the end of the age will come a reckoning time, a showing of results, "Every man's work that he hath wrought shall be made manifest" (I. Corinthians iii, 13).

Our text urges that Timothy, and every faithful servant of God should be so loyal to God and his message that in the great time of examination in the end of this age preparatory to the introduction of the Kingdom the showing shall be one of which we need not be ashamed. Let us, then, say Christian Bible Students of all denominations gathered here to-day, ask ourselves respecting our own work in the world, and how it must appear to God, to ourselves, and to our fellowmen—yea, how it must shortly be made manifest to all!

Let us call the roll. Baptist brethren, What have you to show as workmen who need not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the Word of Truth? Methodist brethren, what say you? Presbyterians, next. Congregationalists, Lutherans, Catholics—all!

The answer of one is practically the answer of all: "We have—so many hundred churches. They cost—so many millions of dollars. Their steeples are—so high. Their cost of maintenance is—so much. The number of ministers is—so much. The Church collections amount to so much. The amount collected for foreign missions is—so much. The amount expended on fine choirs and elegant organs is—so much. The aggregated debts of all our churches is—so much. The unpaid interest on many of these debts is—so much. The time and energy expended in fairs, bazaars, etc., to help pay the expenditures is—so much. The number of Church membership is—so much. The number in Sunday Schools is—so many."

Many of our dear Christian friends say, What lack we yet? Have we not really attained the goal of our Church ambition? Should we build finer edifices or pay larger salaries? Are we not straining ourselves with collections at every turn? What more could God ask of us? "We are rich and increased in goods and have need of nothing" (Revelation iii, 16-19).

In reply we may suppose the Lord to ask, Where did I give you instruction respecting these things? Where in my Word did you find the suggestion that what I desired you to do in the world was to erect great church edifices, piles of stone and iron and mortar, polished woods and stained glass? You are not rightly reading my Word. However good in intention, you have failed to "rightly divide the Word of Truth!" The Temple respecting which I gave instruction is the spiritual one, the Temple of the holy Spirit—the Body of Christ which is the Church. I fear that you have forgotten the true temple of God while rearing so many temples of earthly materials. Concerning the true Temple I instructed you that "the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are"—"living stones" being shaped and polished "for the habitation of God through the Spirit." Show me what you have accomplished in this way. Show me to what extent you have rightly divided my Word, and properly instructed mankind respecting my glorious character and my great Divine Plan of the Ages! Show me fruitage of the glorious message!

How many in all the millions that you report are "New Creatures in Christ Jesus," who "walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit." Let me hear the message of my love and grace in Christ as you are proclaiming it! What mean these sectarian divisions amongst you? Why are there so many Church edifices and so few saintly worshipers? Who authorized you to put these creedal fences between my people to divide the flock? Know ye not that I said: there is one flock and one Shepherd? Why have you so neglected the spiritual interests of my flock and their instruction in righteousness? Why are you so unable to rightly divide my Word?

Instead of coming together as one Church of the Living God whose names are written in heaven you have divided into hundreds of sects and parties! Instead of taking my Word as a whole and rightly dividing its teachings as between the different ages and dispensations of my work, you have divided my Word on a sectarian manner. One sect has made one selection from my Word and another sect has made another selection. Thus you have torn pieces of my Word against another part of it, and hence get into confusion and conflict. What have you to answer for these things?

With shame of face we must all acknowledge that "We have done those things which we ought not to have done and have left undone those things which we ought to have done, and there is no help in us." The proper thing for us to do, dear Christian friends, is to get down on our knees before the Lord and in contrition of heart to acknowledge that we have wrought no deliverance in the earth (Isaiah xxvi, 18); that our sectarian differences are our shame; that the ignorance that we have all been in respecting the Word of God is humiliating. Now that our eyes are open so that we can comprehend as never before the harmony of God's message from Genesis to Revelation, it means a rich feast and blessing to our souls. The Word of God becomes more precious to us daily as we become able to comprehend it. Our duty is to fly to the assistance of our dear brethren and sisters in Christ, of all denominations, and to unite upon this plan with us in a determined stand for righteousness, for Truth, for God and for his Word.

We must show them that ignorantly we and they have dishonored our God by misrepresentation of his character and misrepresentations of the real teachings of his Word. We must point them to the fact that the Bible does not teach that all mankind except the "Elect" saints will be consigned to an eternity of torture at the hands of fire-proof demons. We must show them that the election of the Church during this age—a saintly little flock—does not mean injury to the non-elect. That, on the contrary, it is the Divine purpose that the elect saints with their great Redeemer in glory shall constitute God's Kingdom. That his Kingdom when established will bind Satan, put down sin, banish ignorance, error and superstition and uplift mankind by "restitution," by resurrection processes, up, up, up, to all that was lost in Eden by disobedience and to all secured for Adam and his race through the great transaction at Calvary (Acts iii, 19-21).

Alas, how many intelligent people have turned away from following Christ and from hearing the voice of God through the Bible! Alas, how many are looking to Theosophy, to Spiritism; to Christian Science, to Higher Criticism, to Evolution—wandering farther and farther daily from the "faith once for all delivered to the saints" (Jude iii). We fault them no more than we fault ourselves. As a whole we have been workmen who need to be ashamed, rightly dividing dishonored God through misunderstanding and misrepresenting his Word and his Character. We have driven away from God and the Bible some of the most intelligent of our fellows, by reason of the contradictory nonsense of our creeds.

The Apostle urges, "Study to show thyself approved unto God." We are not to suppose, therefore, that the highest of all science, that which pertains to the Divine purpose and the Divine plan, can be acquired without study. We are not in this claiming that study alone would bring the desired results of proper knowledge. We heartily agree with the foregoing proposition that "the world by wisdom knows not God." We are not therefore to study along the lines of worldly wisdom, nor along the lines of "that wisdom that cometh from above"—along the lines of the inspired Scriptures. We must study! Whoever will not study will not know. "The secret of the Lord is with them that reverence Him." And reverencing him means the giving of our best thoughts and talents to the study of his Word, that we may "know the things freely given to us of God" (I. Corinthians ii, 12).

We should note further as Bible students that we must not study to be approved of men, but to have the Divine approval. This will bring to us, as it did to the Master and his apostles, the disapprobation of the worldly-wise and nominally religious. It was the Chief Priests and Scribes and Pharisees, and not the common people of the Jews, nor the Roman soldiers, who were guilty of the crucifixion of our Lord. And we must expect similar conditions, because, as the Apostle says, "As he was so are we in this world." The class who called the Master Beelzebub is the same class which will oppose his footstep followers.

God permits all this with wise and loving forintention. Nothing connected with the opposing forces is in any sense of the word interfering with his great Program. He set apart with Divine wisdom this Gospel Age of nearly nineteen centuries for the sole purpose of selecting from the world "the Church of the firstborns"—the antitypical Priests and Levites. The restriction of his message, the darkening of counsel, the clashing of creeds, the opposition of the world, the flesh and the Devil, are all wisely permitted with the forintention on God's part that thus all through the Age the way of the cross—in the footsteps of Jesus—should be a "narrow way," so that comparatively few finding it would care to walk in it.

It is those few, that "little flock" zealous for God, for his Word, for righteousness, that he is now marking out as the prospective joint-heirs with Jesus in his glorious Kingdom, which is to bless the world with full opportunities for earthly salvation—"restitution." The trials of the faith, the patience, the love, the devotion of this "little flock" are all designed and not accidental. Satan and his hosts may think that the Divine Plan and may mislead and use humanity as their tools, but it shall yet be seen that all of the Divine purposes shall be accomplished. The Word that has gone forth out of Jehovah's mouth shall prosper in the thing whereto he sent it.

St. Paul declared of earthly Israel, that they enjoyed "much advantage every way, because to them were committed the oracles of God." Now, dear friends, it seems to me that you and I and all sincere Christians the world around enjoy much advantage every way. Looking to the past we find great excuse for our dear forefathers who, with sincerity of heart, so misunderstood the Divine Word and so misinterpreted the spirit of the Master that they burned one another at the stake. We should not think so harshly of them for this—as though they lived now under the greater advantages which we possess. We should sympathize with them. We should consider them as blinded by the great Adversary as was Saul of Tarsus, when he, as a member of the Sanhedrin, authorized the stoning of St. Stephen. We should think of them sympathetically—as St. Peter spoke of the Jews who crucified the Lord. He said, "I wot, brethren, that in ignorance ye did it, as did also your rulers." So also we should kindly, lovingly cast a mantle of benevolence over similar conduct on the part of John Calvin and others of our forefathers. But as we would not go to the Jewish rulers, nor to Saul of Tarsus for spiritual instruction, neither should we go to Brother Calvin or others of our forefathers who were blinded, as he was, respecting the true character of God and the true Spirit of his Word.

Only within the past century have the masses of God's people been able even to read the Bible. If they had possessed it. And only within the same time have they had the Bible to read. Our great Guidance has been that with Bibles in our hands and with ability to use them, we looked for instruction to our well-meaning fathers instead of going to God's Word itself. Now by God's grace the eyes of our understanding are opened. The wonderful Bibles of our day with their marginal references, their concordances, etc., and other assistances in Bible study are bringing us in touch with the whole message of God's Word. Now one passage of Scripture throws light upon another and thus with increasing brightness the Word of the Lord as a whole gives light upon the pathway of his Church.

When Romans Kissed.

Rowena, the beautiful daughter of the Saxon Hengist, is credited with having introduced kissing into the British Islands. The Romans had a really delightful word for a kiss—osculum, which came from os, the mouth, and meant a little mouth, a sweet mouth. "Give me a sweet little mouth" would be the phrase used when a good little Roman boy asked his mother for a kiss.

Mullet In Dry Dock.

A remarkable catch of mullet was made at Great Western Docks, Plymouth, Eng., the other day. The officials were surprised to see the water in the graving dock teeming with grey mullet of exceptional size. The dock was pumped dry, and when the fish were collected they weighed four and a half tons, averaging about a pound each.

The bride-to-be had the air of one who is unreconciled to the existing state of affairs. "Can't we take a wedding trip, as we'd planned?" she asked, plaintively.

"Not just now," said the young man, "on account of my partner's illness."

"I thought it would be such fun, taking that six days' railway journey!" she sighed.

"Well, now, see here," said the young man. "If we take the flat I looked at yesterday, it'll be just the same as living in a saloon carriage, except that the scenery won't change."

A SAFE MEDICINE FOR ALL CHILDREN

The mothers whose little ones are ill not only wish for a medicine that will make their ailments cease but one that positively cannot do any harm. Such a medicine is Baby's Own Tablets. They are sold under the positive guarantee of a government analyst to contain no opiate, narcotic or other harmful drug. They always do good; they cannot possibly do harm —and even the poor born baby can. Concerning them Mrs. J. E. Z. Marchand, Ste. Anne de la Perade, Que., writes: —"I find Baby's Own Tablets indispensible. As soon as I find one of my children not feeling well I administer the Tablets and I am never disappointed in the result. I would not be without them and am enclosing fifty cents for two more boxes." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

MR. CUSHING

Some very startling allegations were made against W.H.Cushing, late Minister of Public Works in the Rutherford government, by the Edmonton Capital of July 6. The charges were made regarding a draft for $4,900 negotiated by Mr. Cushing in Detroit April 10, 1909.

The writer desires to convey the impression in his article that Mr. Cushing is awfully crooked, in fact is tarred with the same stick that members of the Liberal party at Edmonton and Ottawa are tarred with.

The funny part of the business is that the Capital is a Liberal paper and is responsible for the exposure, while the Albertan, another Liberal paper, defends Mr. Cushing and calls the attack a most cowardly and malicious onslaught on a respected citizen.

It begins to look as though the feud between the Rutherford-Cross faction and the Cushing faction of the Liberal party may become interesting.

At the present time the Rutherford-Cross party occupy the floor and Mr. Cushing must explain some things or be crushed by the great weight of public opinion.

We are inclined to fair play and think the attack on Mr. Cushing should have been made before he took his trip abroad. It does look a little bit unfair to hit a man behind his back.

Let us withhold judgment until we hear from Mr. Cushing.

THE EASY FARMERS.

(Toronto Mail)

The farmers of the West are to present Sir Wilfrid Laurier with a list of their requirements. But why go to that trouble? Why not assume that he has promised to grant everything that is asked? That he will make such a promise, altogether irrespective of his intentions, goes without saying.

"Settlement of the boundary question by Manitoba receiving the lands and all natural resources of the added territory." This is one of the planks in the platform of the Manitoba Liberal party. Yet the same party in Alberta are, and have been, utterly opposed to such a thing, saying we have no claim on the lands and a cash subsidy of a few thousand dollars is far better anyway. The fact of the matter is provincial Liberals have to do whatever Sir Wilfrid Laurier tells them to do.

Along the Lobstick Valley

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bradley and Miss Mildred Bradley have gone to Evarts for the summer.

The past few weeks has seemed like the homesteaders home-coming. With the arrival of Messrs. Jas. Connington, Oswald Connington and Robert Menzies, the Valley seems to have taken up its old time activity again.

Henry Hart, of Poplar Ridge, accompanied by Messrs. Arthur Morris and Wm. Milne, of Edmonton, visited A. Du Perrier, the latter two with the intention of settling along the Lobstick Valley. They returned well satisfied with the country and we hope soon to have them for neighbors.

Archie Elliot has just completed one of the nicest little cottages in the Valley.

J. A. Brickel, who has been laid up for several weeks with rheumatism, is up and around again.

According to a letter published in the News of June 1st, and dated May 21st, and signed John M. Reid, the correspondent seems as though he would like the readers of this paper to believe that the writer of the "Lobstick Valley News" had joined Theodore Roosevelt's famous Ananias Club. Now Sir, I want the readers of this paper distinctly to understand that the fire in question was no Halley's comet and that it did not occur in mid-air. He has taken to himself a paragraph that did not refer to him, nor to anybody else in particular. That the fire in general, along this valley, destroyed valuable timber nobody with common sense would deny. I still maintain that it did destroy valuable timber and property and that the cattle suffered for days for want of proper pasturage. But referring to the fire Mr. Reid took special exception to, the one that occurred on his mother's place, (I wish to say here that at the time of the fire Mrs. Reid was in Scotland). When Mr. Reid says the fire was approaching all that was valuable on the ranch "before a terrific wind," still according to his letter it did not burn anything belonging to him nor to anybody else. That it did not burn anything belonging to him is correct. But when he says to anybody else he is mistaken. Upon a closer investigation of the facts the writer finds that the place inhabited by Mr. Reid at the time of the fire was not his but his mother's.

Also that two barns that were destroyed by the fire were his mother's. Of course they were of no value to Mr. Reid. But the several thousand feet of lumber close by that did not burn, also the few hewed logs just about where the fire originated that did not burn either, those things were valuable to Mr. Reid. If I said that anything of value to Mr. Reid was destroyed by the fire in question, I bow my head in shame and apologize. I will not call Mr. Reid a liar, it would seem too much like Aberdeen back-alley talk, but I will say that, in his letter to the News, he handles the truth in a very careless manner. So for the protection of Mr. Reid's good name, which by the way I would advise him to at once get an asbestos umbrella for to protect it in the future, it is with regret and a contrite heart that I fully apologize to Mr. John M. Reid that the fire was an accident as stated in this paper a few weeks ago.

Obituary.

On Sunday, June 19th, the people of Evarts were shocked to hear that Clifford and Earl Jackson, aged 14 and 10 respectively, were drowned in the Medicine river, about one hundred rods north of town.

The little boys, with Merritt Braton, were picking strawberries on their way from Sunday school and, on reaching the river, went in to bathe. Clifford went beyond his depth and did not hear Merritt's warning that he was approaching a deep hole. Earl, the eldest brother, always his younger brother's help and protector, who stood on the bank, rushed in after him, but before he could reach him, Clifford sank from view. Merritt ran for help, and in about five or seven minutes ten or fifteen people were at the river, but it was some time before the bodies were found. They were found in about fifteen feet of water, by Sam Smith and Mr. Hastings. Everything was done to revive them, but in vain. Dr. Parsons was summoned but they were beyond help.

The heartfelt sympathy of the community is extended to the parents who are heartbroken over the loss of their darling boys. All who knew Earl, knew him as a perfect little gentleman, always kind, loving and thoughtful. Little Clifford, not much more than a baby, was always frail, but was always of a loving and cheerful disposition.

We shall miss them from our midst but they have gone home to Him who doeth all things well. Weep not for us our loved ones dear,
We are not dead but sleeping here,
We were not yours, but God's alone.
He loved us best and called us home.

Stomach Agony

Abolish the Cause, and Misery and Distress of Indigestion will Vanish

Can indigestion be cured? Hundreds of thousands of people who suffer from belching of gas, biliousness, sour stomach, fullness, nausea, shortness of breath, bad taste in mouth, foul breath, nervousness and other distressing symptoms, are asking themselves that question daily.

And if these same doubting dyspeptics could only read the thousands of sincere letters from people who once suffered as badly as they do now, but who have been quickly and permanently cured by the use of Mi-o-na, the mighty dyspepsia remedy that cures by removing the cause, they would go to Gaetz-Cornett Drug Co. this very day and get a large box of Mi-o-na tablets, and start themselves on the right road to health at once.

The price of Mi-o-na tablets is only 50 cents, and Gaetz-Cornett Drug Co. guarantees them to cure indigestion, or money back.

Thin or lean or scrawny people will find in Mi-o-na a maker of flesh and blood, because it causes the stomach to extract more nutritious matter from the food, which quickly enriches the blood.

Important to Farmers and Stockmen

The farmer or rancher who wishes to enlarge or improve his herd by securing some of the well bred stuff now being put on the market because of the crowding out of the big ranchers will, upon application to the Live Stock Commissioner at Edmonton, be put in touch with parties who are offering their stock for sale. Several ranchers have already given notice of their intention to reduce the size of their herds or sell out entirely.

Most of the herds reported are of the Shorthorn or Hereford breeding, or are crosses of these breeds. Practically all are bred for beef production, and being range bred are much better able to take care of themselves than are the farm bred that find their way out here from the east.

These animals will be of little use to dairymen.

Address all enquiries to the undersigned, in care of the Department of Agriculture, Edmonton.

W. F. STEVENS,
Live Stock Commissioner.

Edmonton Exhibition

This year on August 23, 24, 25, and 26, The Edmonton Exhibition Association, Ltd., will hold its annual Stock Show and Race Meet at which over $30,000 will be distributed in prizes, purses and attractions.

The exhibition will be held on the new grounds acquired through the City of Edmonton, consisting of 147 acres of land, about 80 of which are being devoted entirely to Exhibition purposes. On these grounds modern stock buildings have been erected, a grand stand which will accommodate 5,000 people, besides poultry and dog, dairy and horticultural buildings, race stables, etc., and a up-to-date half mile standard race track, the total expenditure on grounds and buildings exceeding $175.000. Another $200,000 will be expended on Exhibition buildings before 1912, when the Provincial exhibition, complete in all departments, will be held in Edmonton. One feature of the 1912 exhibition will be the running of the first Edmonton Futurity for 3 year old trotters and pacers, for which a stake of $3,000 has been guaranteed. A similar Futurity has been guaranteed to be run in 1913, the guaranteed value of which is $3,500. Entries for both of these stakes close on September 1st. The Edmonton Derby for 3 year old running horses, value $1,000, will also be run in 1913, entries for which close on November 1st. About sixty entries have already been received for the Futurities for harness horses, and by Sept. 1st is expected that this number will be increased to one hundred.

Beside encouraging the breeding of racing stock, The Edmonton Association have also taken steps to promote breeding along the other lines by forming the Alberta Provincial Horse, Cattle, Sheep and Swine Breeders' Associations, having their headquarters and registered office at Edmonton.

A Great Man.

The Sault Ste. Marie Star, a brightly written paper, recently dealt effectively with Hon. William Pugsley, late of the Central Railway, later of the Sawdust Wharf. A correspondent asked the editor if he did not consider Hon. William Pugsley one of the most promising men in public life in Canada today.

"Indeed we do," replies the Star, "and not only one of the best, but as a promiser he is laps and laps ahead of any man in Canada.

"Why, Lord bless you, when the occasion seems to require it, Mr. Pugsley will promise anything from a railroad to the moon, to a refrigerator plant in—er—a warm climate, and as for dry docks and great ocean ports, he would as soon promise these to the Yukon as to any of the great sea ports of Alberta, and it must be kept in mind that Mr. Pugsley is always 'serious.'

"It is related that at the time of the first race for the Queen's Cup, her late Majesty Queen Victoria was so interested in the contest that she had messengers bring her frequent word as to the positions of the different yachts, and when at last word came that the 'America' had won, she asked which was second and received the reply, 'There was no second.' So it is with Willie as a promiser. There is no second. He is 'The whole cheese,' 'The only pebble,' and it will be long, long years before we see his like again. At least that is our opinion, and we like it to be well understood that we are backing Willie for this stunt.

"Vive Pugsley, pride of the Premier, prince of promisers, and personifinator of purity.

"A great man is Willie—SWEET WILLIAM."

"I don't see yet how Kirkwood got anything to do with Dorothy."

"Miss Calendar to you, Mr. Mulready!" snapped Calendar. "There, there, now! Don't get excited. It was when the Hallam passed me word that a man from the Yard was waiting on the altar steps for me that Kirkwood came in. He was dining close by. I went over and worked on his feelings until he agreed to take Dorothy off my hands. If I had attempted to leave the place with her they'd have spotted me for sure. My compliments to you, Dick Mulready."

There came the noise of chair legs scraped harshly on the cabin deck. Apparently Mulready had leaped to his feet in a rage.

"I've told you"— he began in a voice thick with passion.

"Oh, sit down!" Calendar cut in contemptuously. "Sit down! D'you hear? That's all over and done with. We understand each other now, and you won't try any more monkey shines. It's a square deal and a square divide so far's I'm concerned. If we stick together there'll be profit enough for all concerned. Sit down, Mul, and have another slug of the captain's bum rum."

Although Mulready consented to be pacified, Kirkwood got the impression that the man was far gone in drink. A moment later he heard him growl "Chin-chin!" antiphonal to the captain's "Cheer-o!"

"Now, then," Calendar proposed, "Mr. Kirkwood aside—peace be with him—let's get down to cases."

"Wot's the row?" asked the captain

"The row, cap'n, is the Hallam female, who has unexpectedly showed up in Antwerp, we have reason to believe, with malicious intent and a private detective to add to the gayety of nations."

"Wot's the odds? She can't 'urt us without lyin' up trouble for 'erself."

"Mighty little consolation to us when we're working it out in jail."

"Speak for yourself," grunted Mulready surlily.

"I do," returned Calendar easily. "We're both in the shadow of jail, Mul, my boy, since you choose to take the reference as personal. Sing Sing, however, yawns for me alone. It's going to keep on yawning, too, unless I miss my guess. I love my native land most to death, but"—

"Ow, blow that!" interrupted the captain irritably. "Let's 'ear about the 'Allum Wot're you afryd of?"

"Your wife'll set up a yell when she finds out we're planting the loot, cap'n. She's just that vindictive. You'd think she'd be satisfied with her end of the stick, but you don't know the Hallams. That milk and water affair of hers is the apple of her eye, and Freddie's going to collar the whole shooting match or madam will kick over the traces."

"Yes?"

"Well, she's queered us here. We can't do anything if my lady is going to camp on our trail and tell everybody we're shady customers, can we? The question now before the board is, Where now—and how?"

"Amsterdam," Mulready chimed in "I told you that in the beginning."

"But how?" argued Calendar. "The Lord knows I'm willing, but we can't go by rail, thanks to the Hallam We've got to lose her first of all."

"But wot I'm arskin' is wot's the matter with"—

"The Alethea, cap'n? Nothing, so far as Dick and I are concerned. But my dutiful daughter is prejudiced. She's been so long without proper paternal discipline," Calendar laughed, "that she's rather high spirited. Of course I might overcome her objections, but the girl's no fool, and every ounce of pressure I bring to bear just now only helps make her more restless and suspicious."

"You have her to me," Mulready interposed, with a brutal laugh. "I'll guarantee to get her aboard or"—

"Drop it, Dick." Calendar advised quietly, "and go a bit easy with that bottle for five minutes, can't you?"

"Well, then," Stryker resumed, apparently concurring in Calendar's attitude, "w'y don't one of you tyke the stuff, go off quiet an' dispose of it to a proper fence an' come back to divide. I don't see w'y that"—

"Naturally you wouldn't," chuckled Calendar. "Few people besides the two of us understand the depth of affection existing between Dick, here, and me. We just can't bear to get out of sight of each other. We're sure inseparable—since night before last Odd, isn't it?"

"You drop it!" snarled Mulready in accents so ugly that the listener was startled. "Enough's enough, and"—

"There, there, Dick! All right. I'll behave," Calendar soothed him. "We'll forget and say no more about it."

"Well, see you don't."

"But 'as either of you a plan?" persisted Stryker.

"I have," replied Mulready, "and it's the simplest and best, if you could only make this long lost parent here see it."

"Wot is it?"

Mulready seemed to ignore Calendar and address himself to the captain He articulated with some difficulty, slurring his words to the point of indistinctness at times.

"Simple enough," he propounded solemnly. "We've got the gladstone bag here. Miss Dolly's at the hotel That's her papa's bright notion. He thinks she's to be trusted. Now, then, what's the matter with weighing anchor and slipping quietly out to sea?"

"Leavin' the dootiful darter?"

"Cert'n'y. She's only a drag anyway. Better off without her. Then we can wait our time and get highest market prices"—

"You forget, Dick," Calendar put it, "that there's a thousand in it for each of us if she's kept out of England for six weeks. A thousand's five thousand in the land I bail from. I can use five thousand in my business."

"Why can't you be content with what you've got?" demanded Mulready wrathfully.

"Because I'm a seventh son of a seventh son. I can see an inch or two beyond my nose. If Dorothy ever finds her way back to England she'll spoil one of the finest fields of legitimate graft I ever licked my lips to look at I'm trouble with you, Mul, is you're too high toned. You want to play the swell mobsman from post to finish. A quick touch and a clean getaway for yours. Now, that's all right—that has its good points—but you don't want to underestimate the advantages of a good blackmailing connection. Once I can keep Dorothy quiet long enough I look to the Hallam and precious Fred Ille to be a great comfort to me in my old age."

"Turn, for heaven's sake," cried Mulready, "go to the hotel, get your brat by the scruff of her pretty neck and drag her aboard! Let's get out of this!"

"I won't," returned Calendar inflexibly.

The dispute continued, but the listener had heard enough. Stealthily he crept away to the rail, to stand grasping it and staring across the water with unseeing eyes at the gay old city twinkling back with her thousand eyes of light.

Over there, across the water, in the flingy and disreputable Hotel du Commerce, Dorothy waited for her room, doubtless the prey of unnumbered nameless terrors, while aboard the brigantine her fate was being decided by a council of three unspeakable scoundrels, one of whom, professing himself her father, openly declared his intention of using her to further his selfish and criminal ends.

His first and natural thought—to steal away to her and induce her to accompany him back to England—Kirkwood perforce discarded. He could have wept over the realization of his unqualified impotency. He had no money, not even cab fare from the hotel to the railway station. Something subtler, more crafty, had to be contrived to meet the emergency. And there was one way, one only. He could see none other. Temporarily he must make himself one of the company of her enemies, force himself upon them ingratiate himself into their good graces, gain their confidence, then when opportunity offered betray them and the power to make them tolerate him. If not receive him as a fellow, the knowledge of them and their plans that they had unwittingly given him, was his.

And Dorothy was waiting.

He swung round and without attempting to muffle his footfalls strode toward the companionway. He must pretend he had just come aboard.

Subconsciously he had been aware during his time of pondering that the voices in the cabin had been steadily rising in volume, rising louder and yet more loud, Mulready's ominous, brink blurred accents dominating the others. There was a quarrel afoot, as soon as he gave it heed Kirkwood understood that Mulready in the madness of his inflamed brain was forcing the issue, while Calendar sought vainly to calm and soothe him.

The American arrived at the head of the companionway at a critical juncture. As he moved to descend some low, cool toned retort of Calendar's seemed to enrage his confederate beyond reason. He yelped aloud with wrath, sprang to his feet, knocking over a chair, and, leaping back toward the foot of the steps, flashed an adroit hand behind him and found his revolver.

"I've stood enough from you!" he screamed, his voice oddly clear in that moment of insanity. "You've played with me as long as you will, you bulking American hog! And now I'm going to show"—

As he held his fire to permit his denunciation to bite home Kirkwood, appalled to find himself standing on the threshold of a tragedy, gathered himself together and launched through the air, straight for the madman's shoulders.

As they went down together sprawling Mulready's head struck against a ransom, and the revolver fell from his limp fingers.

CHAPTER XXI.

PREPARED as he had been for the shock, Kirkwood was able to pick himself up quickly, no injured, Mulready's revolver in his grasp.

On his feet, straddling Mulready's insentient body, he confronted Calendar and Stryker. The face of the latter was a sickly green, the gift of his right. The former seemed coldly composed, already recovering from his surprise and bringing his wits to bear upon the new factor which had been so unceremoniously injected into the situation.

He was leaning heavily upon a hand but rested flat on the table. In his hand he held a revolver, which he was apparently drawn in self defense at the crisis of Mulready's frenzy. Its muzzle was deflected. He looked Kirkwood over with a cool gray eye, the color gradually returning to his fat, clean shaven cheeks, replacing the pardonable pallor which had momentarily rested thereon.

As for Kirkwood, he had covered he fat adventurer before he knew it. Stryker, who had been standing immediately in the rear of Calendar, immediately cowered and cringed to find himself in the line of fire.

Of the three conscious men in the brigantine's cabin Calendar was probably the least confused or excited Stryker was palpably unmanned Kirkwood was tingling with a sense of mastery, but collected and rapidly revolving the combinations for the reversed conditions which had been brought about by Mulready's drunken folly. His self control was apparent in his shining boyish eyes as well as in the bright color that glowed in his cheeks When he decided to speak, it was with rapid enunciation, but clearly and concisely.

"Calendar," he began, "if a single shot is fired about this vessel the river police will be buzzing round your ears in a brace of shakes."

The fat adventurer nodded assent, his eyes contracting.

"Very well," continued Kirkwood briusquely. "You must know that I have personally nothing to fear from the police. If arrested I wouldn't be detained a day. On the other hand, you— Hand me that pistol, Calendar, butt first, please. Look sharp, my man! If you don't"—

He left the ellipsis to be filled in by the corpulent blackguard's intelligence. The latter, gray eyes still intent on the younger man's face, wavered, plainly impressed, but still wondering.

"Quick! I'm not patient tonight."

No longer was Calendar of two minds. In the face of Kirkwood's attitude there was but one course to be followed—that of obedience. Calendar surrendered an untenable position as gracefully as could be wished.

Kirkwood was tingling with a sense of mastery.

"I guess you know what you mean by this," he said, tendering the weapon as per instructions. "I'm doggoned if I do. You'll allow a certain latitude in consideration of my relief. I can't say we were anticipating this—ah—heaven sent visitation."

Wins Out In Australia

MONTREAL.—On May 22nd the S. S. "RAKAI" sailed from this port for Auckland, New Zealand, this being the first sailing of the recently subsidized C. P. R. line from Montreal to Australia and New Zealand.

Part of the "Rakai's" cargo consisted of 2 carloads of "2 in 1" Shoe Polish, made in Hamilton by F. F. Dalley Co. This is the third shipment of "2 in 1" sent to Australia by the Dalley people within the last year. The first, sent June 8th last, consisted of 1,000 gross, the second, sent Nov 2nd contained 1,500 gross, while the shipment just sent amounted to 1,540 gross, or 221,760 boxes. This brings the total of "2 in 1" sent to Australia within the year up to 581,760 boxes.

It would be hard to find a stronger recommendation for "2 in 1" Shoe Polish than that it should thus force its way to the ends of the earth, past almost prohibitive tariffs, against the strongest kind of competition from British and other firms.

TONIC TREATMENT FOR INDIGESTON

The Process of Digestion is Controlled by the Blood and Nerves.

If you have indigestion and you begin a course of treatment to make your stomach stronger, you are on the right track for a real cure. You can never cure yourself by eating pre-digested foods, or by taking purgative medicines. The stomach is not doing its own work under these treatments, and there can be no real cure until the stomach is strong enough to digest all the food necessary to maintain the body in normal health. The great aim of the tonic treatment for indigestion in all forms, is to strengthen the stomach to a point where all foods eaten will digest easily and nourish the body. Anything that will strengthen the stomach is what is needed, as the process of digestion is controlled by the blood and nerves. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are an ideal tonic. They actually make new, rich blood, and thus bring strength and tone to the stomach. This has been proved over and over again, and thousands of grateful people have not hesitated to say so. Here is one instance:—Miss Eva Tocher, Balmoral, Man., says:—"I am writing this letter on behalf of my mother who wishes you to know how much Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have done for her. For several years she had been greatly troubled with indigestion and notwithstanding the medicine she was taking the trouble was growing worse. Every meal was dreaded, and left behind it a feeling of misery and severe pains. As this continued she began to lose strength and energy, and was hardly able to do any housework. Acting on the advice of a friend she began to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and soon began to feel better. She continued taking the Pills until she had used ten boxes, when her health was fully restored and she could take any kind of work without the least discomfort. Since that time she has not had the slightest return of the trouble."

Thousands of cured men and women speak from experience of the benefits derived from Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in cases of indigest on, anaemia, rheumatism, general weakness, pains in the back and side, neuralgia, St. Vitus dance, and the troubles that afflict women and growing girls. These pills are sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

NOVA SCOTIA'S ADVANCE.

Maritime Province Is Again Coming Into Her Own.

Is it not possible that a country regarded with a slightly contemptuous pity by reason of its inactivity may be all the while merely strengthening its fibres for future action?

Such at all events has been the experience of Nova Scotia. Previous to confederation no province of Canada exhibited a greater commercial activity. From her great shipbuilding yards staunch vessels slipped into the water by the hundred and sailed away with the fruits of her industry to distant marts and returned as heavily laden. Small shopkeepers grew into prosperous merchants, prosperous merchants developed into merchant princes. Work and money were plentiful, and the flag of prosperity flew high.

The flag of prosperity descended with the hoisting of the Canadian National ensign in Nova Scotia. Confederation put an end to Nova Scotia's control in the making of Canadian destiny, wrought havoc with the Nova Scotian shipping trade by strangling the arteries of trade with the United States. The shipbuilding industry in Nova Scotia fed largely on foreign trade, and the sudden check placed on that trade killed the principal industry by a slow starvation. Isolated by her geographical position from the rest of Canada, cut off by artificial barriers from the outside world, the province was forced to rest content with a limited internal commerce. Yielding to the force of circumstances she turned from her labors, and so far as the outside world was concerned Nova Scotia slumbered.

It was a natural sleep, however, and not the coma that precedes death. The years of sleep were not wasted years. Slowly but steadily the province built up new tissues, strengthened its tendons and gathered fresh energy into its nerves for future endeavors. The public school system was developed and improved; increased facilities were provided for the encouragement of exact scholarship; and as a result Nova Scotia has given to the world perhaps more college professors and principals than any other province in Canada. The period of awakening has now opened the country and prepared it thoroughly for the present industrial advancement.

The exploitation of her rich coal measures by great moneyed interests finally aroused the province from her commercial lethargy. H. M. Whitney of Boston and his associates formed the Dominion Coal Company in 1893, took over vast areas of coal in the neighborhood of Glace Bay, Cape Breton, equipped splendid collieries with the most modern appliances for coal digging, and furnished fuel for Montreal furnaces. The energy exhibited by the Dominion Coal Company and the instantaneous success achieved, proved a bugaboo to capitalists throughout the commercial atmosphere. Other coal companies dug deeper and faster and shipped more swiftly. Coal measures in Cumberland, in Pictou, in Inverness and in Cape Breton counties were developed. Fully equipped collieries sprang up over the country. Submarine areas were exploited. Practically every known coal seam in the province was delved into by the modern magician who transmutes black diamonds into yellow gold.

The industrial impetus given the province by the coal industries was augmented by the establishment of the Dominion Steel works at Sydney. Eagle eyes had marked the south bank of Sydney harbor as an admirable location for the Steel industry, and the result was an expenditure of $25,000,000 which reared the mightiest steel making plant in Canada and transformed a straggling village into a hustling city. Other companies also found the smelting and refining of iron ore a profitable enterprise, and as a result the steel industry in Nova Scotia is on a thoroughly substantial footing and is growing by leaps and bounds. These are only two of Nova Scotia's booming industries which will put her back in the forefront of the wealthy provinces.

Patents.

The Patent Office issued 6,395 patents in the fiscal year 1909. Of this number 903 were granted to Canadian citizens, and 72 per cent. of the whole issue to citizens of the United States. Besides these, residents of other provinces of the Dominion obtained the following patents: Saskatchewan 32, Alberta 28, Nova Scotia 24, New Brunswick 18, Yukon 4, and Prince Edward Island 3. The principal foreign countries to whose citizens patents were granted were: United States 4,602, Great Britain 346, Germany 215, France 59, Australia 58, Sweden 40, New Zealand 36, Austria 30, Transvaal 12. The ratio of population to each patent granted shows that Ontario secured one patent to every 4,250 residents, Quebec one to every 8,575; British Columbia, one to every 5,095; Manitoba, one to every 5,535; while in New Brunswick the ratio was one to every 9,966; Nova Scotia, one to 19,391, and Prince Edward Island, one to every 33,668. The total revenue of the Patent Office for the fiscal year was $176,692.05.

Strong on Conversation.

The Winnipeg city fathers followed with the closest interest Sir Wilfrid Laurier's legislation at Ottawa and even had representatives at Parliament Hill to see that the city's power privileges on the Winnipeg River were not interfered with. When word came that the bill was killed, one of the City Councillors was despatched to be sent to Hon. Clifford Sifton, congratulating him on his stand. This particular member, while a good councillor, like Sydney Smith, of Western oldtimers did not have educational opportunities in his youth. He had the telegram addressed, Clifford Sifton, chairman of the conversation committee, Ottawa." A newspaperman, however, pointed out that there was a slight difference between "conversation" and "conservation," and the telegram was changed in time.

Those wishing further advice free, may address Dr. Lewis Baker, College Bldg., Cincinnati, Ohio, enclosing self-addressed envelope for reply. If unable to obtain any of the drugs mentioned of your regular druggist, go to some prominent large retail drug store which is sure to be well stocked.

Mrs. A. B.—I receive many such statements as yours. You have never fully recovered from la grippe, and there are thousands who have not. Symptoms are pains, shooting pains in side, chest and limbs, nervousness, insomnia, thinness and wasting, languor, shortness of breath, headaches, neurasthenia, melancholy, weakness, trembling, loss of appetite, etc. One may have any or all such symptoms and more. Here is a most wonderful tonic and vitalizer of the system:

Compound syrup of hypophosphites 5 ozs., tincture cadomene compound 1 oz. (not cardamom). Mix. Take a teaspoonful before meals and at bedtime.

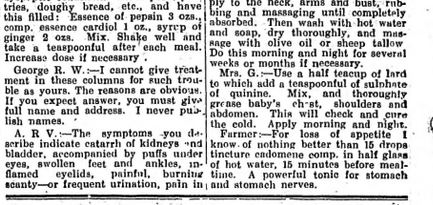

Miss. X.:—The bedwetting "habit" is a disease of children and can be corrected and cured by the persistent use of compound fluid balmwort. Obtain one ounce, and give from 5 to 15 drops in water, after each meal, between meals and at bedtime. Symptoms may increase at first, but continue treatment 2 or 3 months. Keep the bowels regular always.

Maid.—Every lady should endeavor to improve the figure and I know of one formula which has proven very successful in developing bust, arms and neck. Tincture cadomene comp. 1 oz. (not cardamom), glycerine 2 ozs., rosewater 3 ozs., borax 1 teaspoonful. Mix all together, shake well and apply to the neck, arms and bust, rubbing and massaging until completely absorbed. Then wash with hot water and soap, dry thoroughly, and massage with olive oil or sheep tallow Do this morning and night for several weeks or months if necessary.

Mrs. G.:—Use a half teacup of lard to which add a teaspoonful of sulphate of quinine. Mix, and thoroughly grease baby's feet, shoulders and abdomen. This will check and cure the cold. Apply morning and night.

Farmer.—For loss of appetite I know of nothing better than 15 drops tincture cadomene comp. in half glass of hot water, 15 minutes before meals. Also a powerful tonic for stomach and stomach nerves.

Mrs. A. R. V.—The symptoms you describe indicate catarrh of kidneys and bladder, accompanied by puffs under eyes, swollen feet and ankles, inflamed eyelids, painful, burning, scanty—or frequent urination, pain in back, soreness in bladder region, etc., can be readily corrected by the use of this excellent prescription: Fluid extract buchu 1 oz., comp. fluid balmwort 1 oz., syrup sarsaparilla comp. 4 ozs Mix. Take a teaspoonful after each meal and one at bedtime. Drink lots of water between meals.

All those wishing to join the party, please give in their names to W. H. Hadley as early as possible, so that complete arrangements can be made at the next meeting on July 20th. FOR TIRED EYES.

Sensations exist for our guidance. They are nature's warnings. Overworked eyes demand rest. Eyes that tire easily call for help. Properly fitted glasses afford the only assistance possible.

Our Optical parlor is furnished with the most modern devices, and our Mr. H. H. Gaetz gives this matter his personal attention.

Baseball.

Baseball is still booming in Red Deer and the team is still keeping up its record of victories. So far the only game Red Deer has lost this season was in a double header at Wetaskiwin with Bittern Lake, Red Deer taking the first game and Bitterd Lake the second. The majority of the games have been won by hitting the ball hard and at the right time and the fielding has been rather loose. The team are finding their gait, however, as was evidenced by the game with Olds when only one error was chalked down.

The Bittern Lake team play a double header here on Thursday at 3 and 6.45. These games should be the best this season as Bittern Lake is admitted to be the best team in the north. Red Deer will probably line up as follows: Washburn p, Turner c, Martin 1b, Edgington 2b, Wagner ss, Evans 3b, Mann lf, Whittey cf, Hewson, Losse and Pfeiffer.

Wagner is a new acquisition and hails from London, Ontario, where he has been playing considerable ball. He is a cousin of the world-famous Hans Wagner and it is a well known fact that ball playing runs in families. Mr. Wagner's position is short stop, but he is also some pitcher and will probably pitch the afternoon game. He has taken a position with W.E.Trump and will make his home here. Another player who recently struck town is Mr. Pfeiffer, formerly of the Winnipeg Maroons. He will probably be seen in a Red Deer uniform before long. Strathcona will play a double header here on July 19th. This is also a very fast team. These afternoon games are being played for the benefit of those living too far from town to attend the evening games and should draw good crowds. The bleachers are a deciden aid to comfort, ladies being allowed the use of them free of charge, while a nominal admission is charged to men.

Ridgewood Flashes

Considerable hail has fallen around us, but so far it has done no damage in this district. The crops never looked better, though haying will be later than usual.

Miss Lewis, of Pine Hill school, was a visitor to Mrs. James Martin last week.

We notice many "artists" at work in the district. Messrs. Waste, A. Kennedy, J. Scott, and Tilden have all improved their properties by the addition of a little paint, and added to the beauty of our district.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Bourne have just returned from a trip to Edmonton and Hardisty, and Miss Waste and Mr. Waste left this week for a similar trip.

Mrs. Grant, of Victoria, B.C., is visiting at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Black, on the Bannerman place.

School will soon be opened now. The building repreents all that is modern in the school-building line and presents a very neat appearance. We trust that it will be not only a thing of beauty but a "joy" for ever.

Miss Johnston, of Barrie, Ont., is visiting for a few weeks at Mrs. Jas. Martin's.

We are glad to welcome to our district Mrs. Oscar McCune, nee Miss Stella Watt.

The Sunday school and church still continue to draw good numbers. Last Sunday there was no service owing to the sickness of our minister. We are to be favored with the presence of Rev. D. G. McQueen, D.D., of Edmonton, who will preach an anniversary sermon Sunday next, the 17th inst. We expect the church will be well filled.

Mrs. Angus Martin has been ailing for a few days but at the last report was able to be around again.

MARRIAGE.

At the Presbyterian Manse, Red Deer, on Monday, July 11th, by the Rev. W. G. Brown, Miss Francis Jessie Morrison, of Red Deer, to Mr. Roy John Corry, coal contractor for the C.P.R., also of Red Deer.

Poplar Ridge.

Miss Mazie Rogers and Mrs. F. Fisher, of Red Deer, have gone to Great Falls, Mon.

Mr. Mott occupied the pulpit last Sunday and gave us one of his usual excellent sermons.

The Sunday School will hold a picnic at Sylvan Lake to-morrow.

Hugh Kirkland is home from his homestead.

Sylvan Lake News.

Mr. Archambault has bought an engine and fixed up the old Fulmer sail boat as a launch and he now plows the wave in great style. Mr. Greene's new launch also promises to be a clipper.

Mr. Payne's new cottage is one of the prettiest at the Lake and is also in a good situation. Dr. Plaxton also has a new cottage while Messrs. Rutter, and McIntosh are building.

The large crowds have not arrived at the Lake as yet but they will be out in force this week. Harry Wallace, Ray Gaetz, Dick Woodsworth, W. Springbett and W. E. Payne with their families have been out for a few days while L. M. Gaetz, Dr. Plaxton and others were out over Sunday.

Football News.

The School and Firemen came together again on Wednesday night last and the School won out by 1-0. The Firemen were rather weak on the forward line but their defence was strong. No goals were scored in the first half while in the second half R. Gee put one in for the School but was called offside, and a little later H. Domoney soaked one thro on a rebound off Davis. H. French was referee.

The Town gave the School the game scheduled for Friday last as they were unable to raise a team. This puts the School ahead in points but the Town and Firemen have another game, which if the Firemen win will put them even with the School.
